

Electronic Cashing and Paying in Public Administration

Attila GYÖRGY, Assistant Professor, Ph.D Student Bucharest Academy of Economic Studies

Abstract: Governmental institutions have a vital role in every economy, but a good working needs a good financial management. Cashing the revenues and paying the earmarked amounts at expenditure can be made more efficiently using electronic means of payment: paying orders, cards, transfers and so on. The electronic means of payment reduces considerable the errors and fluidize financial transfers reducing the costs.