

The Role of Local Authorities in Urban Environment Improvement

Cristina ALPOPI, Associate Professor, Ph.D
Margareta FLORESCU, Lecturer, Ph.D
Management Faculty
Administration and Public Management Department
Bucharest Academy of Economic Studies

Abstract: Local authorities have a decisive role regarding the urban environment improvement. The diversity regarding the history, the climate, administrative and legislative conditions are leading to embracement of developed solutions to local level. The implementation of subsidiary principle as per local actions must be undertake to the most proper level, is involving as well the activity of local level. The urban environment requires actions of all the levels: national and regional authorities, European Union as well, each of them having their own level.

Key words: Urban ecology; Environment management; Residues economy; Urbanization; Ecology; Recycling; Residues.