

Achievement of a Permanent, Profesional and Neutral Public Administration in Romania, from the Political Point of View – Essential Criteria concerning Integration of Romania in the European Union

Lazar LATU, Economist, Ph. D Student

Abstract: The improvement of the standards in public administration and the implementation of the Reform in administration represents, as well as we know, a condition for our country to adhere at UE.

The essential requirements for a public administration (permanence, professionalism, political neutrality) can be ensured by a well done selection of the persons adequate for a civil servant career, supported after that by a good training and increasing of the professional, career's development, fight against corruption and attractive working conditions.